

Invitation to research seminar on
ICF – International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health
December 2-3, 2011
Campusvej 55, 5230 Odense M, room U91

Organizer: Centre for Adapted Physical Activity Participation Studies

Friday, December 2:

15:30 – 16:10: Claus Vinther Nielsen, Marselisborg Centre and Aarhus University
The ICF – a conceptual model for rehabilitation research

16:15 – 16:55: Karen DePauw, Virginia Tech, USA:
Adapted Physical Activity Research: Examining assumptions and conceptual models of "body" and dis/ability

Saturday, December 3:

09:00 – 09:40: Helena Hemmingsson, Linköping University, Sweden:
Assessments used in school-aged children with acquired brain injury – Linking to the ICF

09:45 – 10:25: Ejgil Jespersen, University of Southern Denmark
The ICF-CY in case of play

10:40 – 11:20: Susan Tetler, Aarhus University:
Participation... also a 'must' for younger kids

11:25 – 12:05: Anne-Merete Kissow, Roskilde University:
Participation and movement – what does it mean?

12:10 – 13:00: Lunch (at one own's expense)

13:00 – 13:40: Michel Probst, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium:
On the psychiatric relevance of the ICF in comparison with ICD-10 and DSM-IV

13:45 – 14:25: Shaun Gallagher, University of Memphis, USA:
The ICF and the bodily self in contextualized action

14:40 – 15:20: Gitte Rasmussen, University of Southern Denmark:
The method ICF as an ethno-methodological phenomenon

15:25 – 16:05: David Howe, Loughborough University, UK:
The ICF and the capabilities approach

Enrolment asap to lbolwig@health.sdu.dk (limited number of participants)